

Ventilation of Cargo Holds

At Sea

After cargo operation has been completed, ventilation shall be run continuously till the cargo holds are proven gas-free.

When loading wet or snow covered cargo, ventilation shall be run continuously till the cargo and cargo holds are dry.

Good seamanship and common sense shall be used when operating the ventilation system on board the vessel.

